UNIVERSITY OF SAN FRANCISCO

Vice Provost for Diversity and Community Engagement (2011-2021)

Created and led strategic planning for inaugural university-wide diversity, equity and inclusion operations to integrate inclusive excellence throughout the university with opening offices and hiring personnel throughout university as approved and set forth by the USF Board of Trustees. Served as the university's Chief Community Engagement and Chief Diversity Officer. Trusted among staff and faculty in shared governance and collective bargaining engagement.

Major Accomplishments:

Academic and Enrollment Initiatives

- Led strategic enrollment and retention initiatives for historically underrepresented students resulting in USF being ranked number one as the most racially/ethnically diverse student body in the nation (2022), after being classed among the top five over four consecutive years (2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, U.S. News and Reports, Diverse Issues in Higher Education, The Education Trust) in the enrollment and success of students of color.
- Optimized tuition revenue and enhancements to inform financial stability through increases in enrollments year after year, exceeding enrollment projections in targeted and successful enrollment efforts for first generation students in specific geographic regions including Inland Empire/ Los Angeles, Riverside, San Diego counties and throughout Southern California.
- Performed visionary and complex institutional capacity building with campus leaders, faculty, students and staff across divisions and departments for campus-wide diversity education implementation for faculty and staff recruitment and retention, development of curricula and/or co-curriculum for equity and inclusion, student enrollment and retention efforts, business, purchasing and finance integration.
- Initiated and led the university's first comprehensive campus climate survey administration for all faculty, staff and students, with over 34% of each group participating in survey and process.
- Led successful diversity integration in campus reaccreditation with maximum ten-year renewal from Western Association of Schools and Colleges.
- Collaborated with Provost to develop the Faculty Diversity Hiring Initiative as policy to support and develop a cohort of faculty equity advocates who work against all forms of bias in the faculty hiring process.
- Led development of dual enrollment partnership with San Francisco Unified School District to support diverse student enrollment from the City of San Francisco.

Community Engagement

- Elevated USF's anchor institution role in the City of San Francisco significantly over an 8- year time frame and increased visibility, partnership, and service-learning sites within San Francisco Bay Area as liaison with key stakeholders including Mayor's Office, SF Chamber of Commerce, department heads at city agencies, community organizations, and industry partners for community-engaged learning, research, and teaching.

- Generated multiple speaking engagements in the community on behalf of and as a primary external ambassador for USF and served as a popular keynote speaker and thought leader on the university social justice mission by building an equity framework in organizations.
- Facilitated college communications, campaigns, and efforts to further engage and attract multicultural communities to university's academic offerings and resources.
- Initiated the USF Taskforce for the Support and Inclusion of Undocumented Students and developed the first ever scholarship and fellowship fund for undergraduate and graduate-level undocumented students.
- Initiated and served as co-chair of university council on community engagement, with the goal of more than half of membership being made of community partners for shared knowledge and mutually beneficial engagement and partnerships.

Development

- On behalf of the President, supported USF's largest capital campaign at $300 million for scholarships targeting first generation students with high need and high potential to attract the best, brightest and most diverse students regardless of their financial circumstances. During my tenure, USF raised over $160 million to support diversity initiatives and priorities across the university. Collaborated with the President, Provost and other senior leaders on all major development efforts.

Entrepreneurial Strategic Initiatives

- Pioneered the Visiting Diversity Scholar Initiative to create intimate, limited yet transformative learning experiences with local, national and international heroes who served as visiting faculty committed to social justice through a lifetime of service including: U.S. Congressman John Lewis, California Senator Art Torres, Rev. Jesse L. Jackson, SF Poet Laureate Janice Mirikitani; collaborated on a long-term teaching assignment with Clarence B. Jones who served as the speechwriter and legal counsel to Martin Luther King, Jr.
